

Privacy Policy

Senior Veterans, Inc.

- Senior Veterans, Inc., will not sell, transfer, or trade any personally identifiable information with any individual or outside party such as senior living communities, assisted living communities or the Department of Veterans Affairs.
- Any personally identifiable information from any transactions, including any and all donor information from any fundraising events, will remain the sole property of Senior Veterans, Inc. and any such information will not be sold, transferred, traded or discussed with any outside parties.
- All transactions conducted through the web-sites operated by Senior Veterans, Inc., www.seniorvet.org and www.coloradohonor.com, shall remain the sole property of Senior Veterans, Inc.
- Senior Veterans, Inc., will not endorse, promote, represent, or speak on behalf of any persons, organizations or representatives of any company or entity including philanthropic organizations.
- Senior Veterans, Inc., shall be compliant with federal laws/policies of confidentiality established by the Health Insurance Portability Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA), the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C 552a and by 38 U.S.C 5701 and 7332), Department of Veterans Affairs.
- By using the following sites, www.seniorvet.org and www.coloradohonor.com you consent to the Privacy Policy of Senior Veterans, Inc., revised and established January 4, 2020.

Respectfully,

David F. Bolser

CEO/President & Founder
Senior Veterans, Inc.

EIN# 45-4128580